

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

Servest is committed to improving and promoting sound environmental practise. We believe that environmental protection is a strategic business issue and an integral part of our corporate strategy.

Servest complies with all relevant environmental laws and ensures that our employees are aware of their contribution to and responsibility for good environmental practise.